BOYS IN BLUE.

Auspicious Opening of the National G. A. R. Encampment.

SUPERB WEATHER, GREAT CROWDS.

The City of Pittsburgh Taxed to Its Utmost Capacity.

THE NAVAL VETERANS PARADE.

Escorted by the Sons of Veterans, the Naval Reserves and the Mary Logan Cadets—The Chief Social Feature a Magnificent Reception by Mrs. Westinghouse—A Grand Musical Spectacle at the Exposition. Many Regimental Reunions—Music and Colors Everywhere in Evidence.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 10.—The first day of the twenty-eighth national encampment, G. A. R., has closed and nothing but the best can be said of it.

The weather has been superb, the crowds large and no accidents have happened to mar the day.

The marching event of the day was the parade of the naval veterans, who went over the rather long route with a precision and excellence of drill that called forth the heartiest cheers from the spectators.

The veterans numbered 1,000, and were led by Rear Admiral Osborn, and escorted by several thousand members of other organizations, including the Naval Reserves, the Sons of Veterans, and the Mary Logan cadets, a company of uniformed girls from Columbus, Ohio.

In the afternoon the Ladies of the G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps were taken through the city and suburbs in carriages, following which a reception was held at the Monongahela House.

The social evening of the day was a reception by Mrs. George Westinghouse, at her suburban residence, "Solitude," given to the visiting ladies.

Some of the guests who have attended similar affairs on many occasions pronounce it the most gorgeous they ever witnessed. The floral decorations were the finest ever seen in this city. Henry Watterson, ex-Governor of Virginia, and all of the prominent national officers of the G. A. R. were present.

Many reunions were held during the day and evening by members of different regiments, and many were the reminiscences exchanged.

THE CROWDS.

To-night the sidewalks are inadequate to accommodate the crowds that throng them and the roadways are used along the main streets. Street cars and vehicles are almost blocked. Taken altogether, Pittsburgh has never before enjoyed such a scene of animation. Innumerable bands are marching through the downtown streets serenading the newspapers and prominent people.

One of the features of the first day of the encampment was the performance of "War and Peace" at the exposition to-night, and his musical spectacle, dedicated to the encampment, was given by the Thirteenth Regiment band, of New York, a grand chorus of 400 local singers, a company from the Pennsylvania National Guard, Ramon Post No. 800, G. A. R., of St. Louis, and a battery of artillery, all under the direction of the composer. There were about 20,000 people present, including Commander-in-Chief J. G. B. Adams and staff, and others of note.

ATTRACTIVE FEATURES.

There were many pleasing features of the naval parade to-day. Among others were the following:

At the head of the Naval Veterans of Maryland marched Miss Rosie McGulley, of Baltimore, a rosy-cheeked damsel. Dressed in a regular naval, big-collared uniform of blue silk, with a jaunty cap, a pretty sword and lots of medals, the "daughter of the association" attracted much attention. Two little sailor tots, Masters Louis and Victor Bennett, formed her body guard.

Carrying the "Kearsarge banner" were seven survivors of the famous Alabama fight, off Cherbourg, in the old uniforms they wore in the service.

The tattered battleflag, riddled by confederate shot, was with the Rock River Naval Veterans. It flew at the jack staff of the Monitor Winnebago, at the battle of Mobile, and is the property of the commander of the association, Capt. V. D. Woodruff.

GIRL SOLDIERS.

The Mary Logan cadets, the pretty corps of girl soldiers, were the feature of the parade. Coming in the column immediately behind the past national officers of the Naval Veterans' Association, they made a very pretty appearance. The veteran Capt. Chapman was in command. The cadets wore jaunty caps, blue zouave jackets, with a big sailor collar and red facings, little coat tails turned back a la directoire, showing the red lining, and red slashing-like big chevrons on the skirt. Their arms were small rifles and bayonets, and white enamel belts and pouches. All wore medals and "Ohio" badges.

The band at the head of the Sons of Veterans guard, from Fremont, O., wore white helmets, blue tunics and white trousers, with big black boots, and were very picturesque.

THE NAVAL VETERANS.

Their Ninth Annual Convention—Affairs in Good Condition.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—The ninth annual convention of naval veterans was held in the room of the Allegheny County Bar Association this afternoon. There were 200 delegates present. Rear Admiral Osborn presided.

His annual report showed a very encouraging condition of affairs, notwithstanding the defalcation of the fleet paymaster last year. When the Indianapolis convention adjourned there was not a dollar in the treasury and the association was heavily in debt. During the past year all the old accounts have been settled as well as all bills of the present administration. In closing Admiral Osborn stated that having served four terms he would like to be relieved of the duties of his office.

National Secretary Bostwick's report showed that charters had been issued to seven local associations during the year in the cities of Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, Annapolis, Louisville, and Rockford, Ill.

Second Vice President Francis B. Allen, of the northern Ohio department, proposed a resolution asking Congress at its next session to amend the laws regarding enlisted men in the navy that those competent may aspire to higher positions.

The resolutions were supported by the shipmates, and it was decided to memorialize Congress. As the law stands enlisted men cannot rise above the rank of warrant officer.

After the reading of reports and presentation of a large number of resolutions, which were referred, Francis B. Allen, of Hartford, Conn., was elected commander.

The convention adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The "tara" brought their day to a close by holding an encampment "dog watch" in old city hall to-night. The hall was magnificently decorated in nautical designs in patriotic colors. A number of distinguished speakers were present, among them Governor Pattison, Mayor B. McKenna, of Pittsburgh; Mayor W. M. Kennedy, of Allegheny, and Admiral Osborn.

THE CANDIDATES.

For the Position of Commander of the G. A. R.—The Next Encampment.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—Canvassing has been going on briskly already in all directions in connection with G. A. R. politics. Of the four candidates for the office of commander-in-chief each has a pretty strong backing among the delegates to the encampment. Judge Long, of Michigan, has an enthusiastic following, but the friends of Colonel Lawler, of Illinois, claim they have almost all the northwestern states behind him, while the supporters of Colonel Walker, of Indiana, assert that they have promises enough to carry him through.

The Texas aspirant, John D. Bigger, also has plenty of friends who are confident of his ability to win.

Louisville and St. Paul are making a strong fight between them for the next encampment. The Louisville delegation, however, claim to have promises enough from the various departments to result in a majority of the national delegates voting in favor of that city.

Kansas City is also pushing her claims for recognition.

Throughout the day and evening numerous reunions were held in different parts of the city.

GOVERNOR O'FERRALL.

Of Virginia, Has Some Comments to Make on That English Committee.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 10.—The following appears in the Evening Star here this afternoon. Governor O'Ferrall received last night a telegram from the New York World asking what he thought of the English committee which has been sent here to investigate and denounce southern lynchings:

"COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
"RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 9, 1894."

To the World:

Things have come to a pretty pass in this country when we are to have a lot of English moralists sneaking their noses into our internal affairs. It is the quintessence of brand and impudence. They had better sweep in front of their own doors before seeking to regulate us. We might as well investigate English affairs in India, her Whitechapel murders, her Jack the Ripper slashings, the Maybrick trial and her alleged injustice and cruelty to this woman, her rapacious colonial policy in Africa and the degrading effects upon the Chinese resulting from her opium war.

"What information do they seek? Do they want to know that the white people in the south have lynched negroes whose miserable lusts led them to the commission of the black crime of rape upon white women? If so they need not investigate, for such is the fact."

"If they had desired to learn whether these lynchings were permitted or countenanced by the civil authorities, they could have learned through the regular channels of correspondence that in every case the civil authorities were either without knowledge or were overpowered."

"CHARLES T. O'FERRALL,
Governor of Virginia."

GOFF WILL DECIDE.

The Question at Issue Between Governor Tillman and the South Carolina Militia.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 10.—An injunction suit growing out of the South Carolina dispensary riots of last March, came up before Judge Goff in the United States circuit court to-day. Governor Tillman's dispensary spies and raiders were one day attacked by the enraged citizens of Darlington, resulting in the death and wounding of a number of constables. The governor declared he would punish to the fullest extent of the law his rebellious people, and ordered several companies of militia to proceed to the scene of the uprising and restore order and the gubernatorial authority.

The Washington light infantry of Charleston flatly refused to obey the order. The governor thereupon issued an order commanding the company to surrender its arms and accoutrements. This order was also disobeyed and an appeal to the courts, which came up to-day, was made for an injunction to prevent the governor or any state officers from taking possession of the arms.

The point made by the lawyers for the company is that the arms were secured by the company by special act of Congress and held in undisputed possession for over sixteen years; that the arms were issued for no other purpose than the use of the company; that, therefore, the seizure of them by the governor would be illegal, as it would be a diversion of the arms to a purpose not authorized by the act of Congress under which they were issued.

May Get Thirty Years.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 10.—J. M. Bowman, president of the defunct Muncie bank, was found guilty to-day on six counts of making false entries with intent to deceive the United States bank examiner. He will ask for a new trial. The minimum sentence on each count is five years.

PISTOLS AND COFFEE.

May be the Next Thing in Order—Breckinridge Attacks His Old Friend Morton.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 10.—The Commercial Gazette's Lexington, Ky., special says: Colonel Breckinridge is out in a bitter interview, charging Judge Jere Morton with cowardice and duplicity.

Breckinridge and Morton were comrades in the Confederate army, practiced law together and pulled together for years in politics as well as being neighbors. Previous to the Pollard suit, Colonel Breckinridge charges that Judge Morton was not pleased because he could not name certain appointments, and when Madeline was prosecuting the congressman, it is charged in the interview, Judge Morton deserted his old friend.

In his recent speech at Athens, Colonel Breckinridge scored Judge Morton very severely. Judge Morton last Wednesday replied at a public meeting in Lexington, called for that purpose, and his arraignment of Breckinridge was intensely severe. Colonel Breckinridge's rejoinder is in the form of an interview that will appear in the Lexington Transcript to-morrow. It reviews the life time association between the two men; how Morton acted when the Pollard trouble came out on the colonel and since the present congressional contest has been waged. While the Pollard case is reviewed nothing new is brought out in it except that Judge Morton helped Miss Pollard's cause then as he is now helping the cause of Owens. While the relations between the men are so strained as to cause references to the code from others, Colonel Breckinridge closes by saying that they have always lived together at Lexington and must live together at that place hereafter.

THE MIKADO'S HEADQUARTERS.

He Removes Them to the Scene of Military Operations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—A telegram was received at the Japanese legation this afternoon announcing that the emperor would take up his residence at Hiroshima on the 13th inst., and the headquarters of the army and navy would be moved to that place from Tokyo.

Hiroshima is a large town, about 550 miles from Tokyo. It has hitherto been used as the base of operations for the movement of troops and supplies to Korea and other points, and the action of the emperor in taking up his residence there is interpreted to indicate his intention of personally superintending active operations in the war at a point as near the scene of hostilities as possible.

CONTROLLER'S REPORT.

The Business of the United States Treasury for the Year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—The annual report of the controller of the currency was made public to-day. It is a record of the work of the controller's office and shows that the total number of accounts, claims and cases settled during the fiscal year ended June 30 last was 33,165, involving $280,002,002. By comparing the work of this office for the past three fiscal years, an increase of the volume of business since 1891 in round numbers of $104,000,000 is shown, with an increase in the last fiscal year of $74,000,000.

The Cotton Crop.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—The September report of the statistician of the department of agriculture makes cotton show a decline of 5.7 points from the August condition, which was 91.6, against 85.9 for this month. The condition of the plant in the month of June was 88.3, rising to 89.6 in July, and to 91.6 last month. As stated, the August condition for the year 1893 was 89.4, and the September condition for the same year was 73.4, a falling off of seven points. The September condition for this year is 12.5 points higher than that of 1893.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 10.—Warrants were to-day sworn out for the arrest of the following state officers of Mississippi: J. M. Stone, governor; W. W. Stone, auditor, and J. J. Evans, state treasurer. William J. Burns, special agent of the secret service bureau, at Washington, who has been here for the past two months working on the special warrant case, made affidavits before Commissioner L. B. Mosely, charging the with violating section 5430, Revised Statutes of the United States, in issuing the $200,000 of Mississippi special warrants, charged to be in the similitude of United States currency.

MAINE ALL RIGHT.

Biggest Republican Majority in All Her History.

REED'S MAGNIFICENT PLURALITY.

It Jumps Up to Ten Thousand from Sixteen Hundred Two Years Ago. A Grand Endorsement of the Republican Leader in Congress by His People—The Others Elected by Increased Majorities—Every County in the State Goes Republican.

AUGUSTA, MAINE, Sept. 10.—The victorious trumpeting of the Republican elephant is sounding throughout Maine to-night and its giant footprints are plain in the land. It has been a good day for Republicans and a correspondingly bad one for Democrats, but the result was not altogether unforeseen. To rain and general apathy is due the light vote; though the Democrats admit defeat they do not show a symptom of discouragement. The prohibitionists and Populists are not largely in evidence, so far as returns indicate.

A heavy rain put a quietus upon the telegraph and telephone wires early in the evening, but returns have been received by the Associated Press from over one hundred cities and towns, and these indicate that the state has re-elected Governor Clough (Rep.) over Charles F. Johnson (Dem.) by a majority which will exceed 37,000, the largest in the history of the party. The Republicans have carried every county in the state and at 11 o'clock it is estimated that the legislature will have a working Republican majority of 126, which ensures the re-election of Senator William F. Frye.

Hon. Thomas B. Reed has been elected to Congress by a plurality estimated at 10,000. Hon. Nelson Dingley, Hon. Seth H. Milliken and H. Boutelle are also re-elected to Congress by majorities ranging from 6,000 to 9,000. The total vote will probably exceed 110,000.

In 1892 the Republican plurality was only 14,179. Reed's plurality was then only 1,600.

The Great Vermont Victory.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 10.—Returns from all towns in the state received by the town clerk here show the Republican majority to be 27,810 and the plurality 23,350. Official returns will change these figures very little. The Republican plurality two years ago was 17,000. The senate is a Republican unit and the house stands as follows: Republicans, 233; Democrats, 9; Populists, 1.

NOVEL BLACK LIST.

A Water Mark on Letters of Recommendation Alleged to Have Meaning.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 10.—Omaha railroad men are much alarmed over the discovery of what they regard as a novel black list being worked on all western lines. Since the strike all men seeking employment are required to bring a clearance from their last company. The men claim that all the companies are using a sheet of paper on which to write these recommendations that has the figure of a crane worked in it, and while the writing may indicate that the bearer is all right, the position of the animal on the paper, which is invisible except to a close observer, really determines the applicant's standing. In this manner, by a secret code of signals, the railroads, the men say, can write them a favorable letter and by using paper with the figure of the crane, indicating dissatisfaction, prevent their securing work. The men are very much alarmed.

AT REDUCED WAGES.

Of Twenty Per Cent The Glass Factories of New Jersey Start up.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 10.—There was a general resumption in the glass business in South Jersey to-day and by Wednesday there will hardly be an idle glass factory. The coming season promises to be the best for years in the glass trade and the outlook for continued work throughout the season is excellent. The work is being started on a very satisfactory basis to all. Most of the larger factories have orders now on their books to run them throughout the year.

There is a general decrease of 20 per cent in the glass scale to be operated in South Jersey.

IN SELF DEFENSE.

A Bar Keeper Shoots Two Members of a Mob in a Saloon.

ELWOOD, Ind., Sept. 10.—Last night in a fight in Potter Palmer's saloon, Isaac Martin was instantly killed and Phil Hopple probably fatally wounded. A crowd of twenty entered the saloon and began wrecking it. James McDermott, the bar keeper, attempted to put them out and a general fight ensued in which McDermott was roughly handled. He ran behind the bar and they pelted him with billiard balls, cues, glasses and bottles, when he got his revolver and began firing. The first shot took effect in Isaac Martin's temple and he fell dead, while Hopple was shot also in the head, but may recover. The other men then fled. McDermott is under arrest but will offer a plea of self defense.

It is difficult to ascertain the correct figures. Marshal Vinson did not give himself up to-day. He will come back to West Virginia on Tuesday or Wednesday.

A Mother Falls on Her Babe Crushing Its Life Out.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Sept. 10.—A terrible accident occurred yesterday in Union district, this county. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wingrove, who are well known residents of that district, had gone to attend services at the U. R. church. They were in a spring wagon, drawn by two spirited horses, and had stopped in the road in front of the church door to get out. Mr. Wingrove got out and was standing upon the ground ready to help his wife and child out. Mrs. Wingrove stood up in the wagon holding in her arms their three-month-old infant. Just then the horses started and she lost her balance and fell out of the wagon and onto the ground, the baby falling under her. Mrs. Wingrove was helped up and found to be bruised and shaken up considerably. When kind hands picked up the baby, it was found to be dead. The weight of its mother falling upon it had crushed it and life was extinct.

The insurance is almost nothing. Assistance was sent by special train from Massillon, Oreville and Canton. The village water supply was soon exhausted and then wells and cisterns were emptied. Early in the morning a welcome rain began to fall, and the flames began to die out. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

Jones was employed at the Sunnyside hotel and last August disappeared with the heiress. The pair were located in Montreal and later the girl and Jones, who had been married, returned to Chicago and his arrest followed. It is claimed that Jones has two wives living in this city.

WORSE THAN REPORTED.

From Forty to Sixty Killed in the French Railroad Wreck.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—The disaster to the Paris and Cologne express train at Apilly, between Noyon and Chauny, yesterday, was more serious than at first supposed. The first estimates placed the number of persons killed at ten, with twenty injured. It is now stated that from forty to sixty were killed or injured. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Of Republican Clubs Will Take a Very Active Part

IN THE CAMPAIGN OF THIS YEAR.

Meeting of the Executive Committee at Chicago—Plans Discussed—The College Club Representation Arranged So as to Avoid Future Trouble—The Young Men's Republican League Admitted to Membership—Vacancies on the Convention Filled—A Sub-Committee to Conduct the Campaign Appointed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The executive committee of the Republican National League was in session to-day at the Grand Pacific hotel. The object of the meeting was to arrange plans for the fall campaign, in which the league will take part in all the states in which elections are held. The executive committee consists of one member for each state of the union, but there was not a full attendance.

The organization known as the Young Men's Republican League was admitted to membership. The other business before the committee related to campaign work.

The committee finished its work late this afternoon. The college club representation was settled for all time by the report of the special committee appointed at Denver. At the Denver convention the college clubs were represented by single delegates, who held proxies for half a hundred clubs, and it was his vote which decided the place of holding the next convention, giving it to Cleveland. The committee, consisting of S. R. Conway, Iowa; John Goodnow, Minnesota, and John E. Riley, Kentucky, made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"The American Republican College League shall be entitled to representation at the next national convention of the Republican League by its president and secretary. The 1895 convention of the college league shall elect to the national convention in addition to the above one delegate for each club represented in its convention by one member or more of said clubs. Thirty days prior to the convention the president and secretary of the college club shall file with the secretary of the national league the name and address of the delegate and the club he represents. The same prior notice shall be made of the official lists in the college leagues."

The members of the committee believe that this restriction thrown about the college clubs will avoid future trouble of the kind experienced at Denver. The Denver convention having selected Cleveland, Ohio, as the place for the holding of the next convention the committee named the time as the third Wednesday in June.

Vacancies on the committee caused by death and removal were filled in several states, the new members being: Nevada, ex-Congressman Bartine; California, Theodore Reuchart. Ex-President J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa, and John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, were made advisory members of the committee.

President Tracey was directed to appoint a financial committee to consist of five members.

A general discussion followed the work of the league during the coming campaign, and it was determined to cooperate with the national and congressional committees of the Republican party, and a conference will shortly be held with those bodies.

A sub-executive committee to conduct the league's work in the campaign was appointed.
